

Law Series

Celebrating Law Day!

ADULTS

APRIL 10 - 26

Brighthouse Branch

Registration Required

APRIL 10 | Strata Law | 7-8:30pm | Living Room

Know your rights and obligations of being a strata owner. Gain a better understanding of strata bylaws, council members responsibilities, strata meeting languages used, insurance and rental hardships. Join Vivienne Stewart, lawyer and founder of Railtown Law Corp as she goes over strata issues. <http://ow.ly/N65B309u5eK>

APRIL 18 | The Employment Standards Act | 7-8:30pm | Community Place Room

Learn about the legal issues that may affect you in the workplace at this workshop led by lawyer Trevor Thomas. He will demystify the Employment Standards Act, the law that sets out minimum standards that employers and employees must follow in the workplace. <http://ow.ly/Fv6A309u5kT>

APRIL 19 | Family Law | 6:30-8pm | 2nd Floor Program Room

Come and learn about family law services and how a lawyer can help you with legal matters on specific tasks so you get legal advice without hiring them to work the entire case. Zahra Jimale, family law lawyer from Jimale Law will go over everything you need to know to access these legal services. <http://ow.ly/PTo6309u5p0>

APRIL 26 | Residential Tenancy Act | 7:00-8:30pm | 2nd Floor Program Room

Both tenants and landlords have specific rights and responsibilities in a tenancy. Make sure you're renting the right way to ensure a successful tenancy. Luke Lin, Manager Outreach & Advocacy & Homeless Prevention Program with Chimo Community Services will discuss what you should know. <http://ow.ly/2L1a309u5tl>
