

GAME CURIOUS? RICHMOND

Game Curious is a celebration of the creative potential of video games as a cultural medium for art and storytelling. This series of curated arcades and workshops explore games from diverse perspectives.

It is a non-pressure learning environment of discussion, discovery and play. Local developers will share their knowledge. No experience or coins required!

Join us at the Richmond Public Library this May!

7700 Minoru Gate #100
Richmond, BC

Saturdays
1:00-3:00PM

May 27 - June 24
July 8 - August 12

Ages 14+ for PLAY sessions
Ages 18-25 for MAKE sessions

PLAY SESSIONS

Curated games showcasing a wide variety of themes, stories and artistic expression. Those under 14 should be accompanied by an adult, as some games may contain a mature theme.

ROFL, May 27
Comedy Games

Coding Truth To Power, June 3
Political Games

Heart Projector Guest Curation, June 10
Experimental Art Games

Story-core, June 17
Autobiographical Games

Two Controllers are Better than One, June 24
Multiplayer Games

MAKE SESSIONS

A 6-week inclusive and non-competitive series of game-making workshops where participants learn to create their own video game project using free and widely available tools and software; no prior programming skills required.

Ages 18-25, registered program. More information coming soon!

<http://gamecuriousrichmond.info>

Richmond
Public Library